Report on the 21st Annual Convocation

"Education is not the learning of facts, but the training of the mind to think."

— Albert Einstein

The 21st Annual Convocation Ceremony of Gokula Krishna College of Engineering, Sullurpet was celebrated with grandeur and academic dignity in the college seminar hall. Around 100 graduates registered for the ceremony, and nearly 60 graduates along with their parents proudly attended in person, joined by their parents, faculty, and well-wishers to witness one of the most memorable days of their academic life.

A Procession of Pride

The morning began with a majestic academic procession, an age-old symbol of scholarly tradition. The rhythmic beats of the college band echoed through the corridors as the dignitaries — Chief Guest Dr. Balagani Pavan Kumar, Principal Dr. M. Suresh, Vice Principal Smt. M. Gnana Priya, and Heads of all Departments — entered the convocation hall in ceremonial robes. The audience rose in respect as the procession made its way down the aisle, radiating dignity, pride, and academic honour. The event commenced with a majestic academic procession, symbolizing the dignity and tradition of higher education.

Lighting the Lamp of Knowledge

The function was formally inaugurated with the lighting of the ceremonial lamp, a gesture signifying enlightenment and wisdom. This was followed by the soulful rendition of the “Maa Telugu Thalli” song, filling the hall with a sense of cultural reverence and unity.

Principal Dr. M. Suresh, in his Presidential Address, congratulated the graduates for their achievements and reminded them that “true education begins when you step into the real world.” He emphasized the values of integrity, innovation, and lifelong learning.

An Inspiring Address by the Chief Guest

The Chief Guest, Dr. Balagani Pavan Kumar, Editor-in-Chief of the Journal of Comprehensive Pharmacy (ISSN 2349-5669), and a renowned academician and researcher, delivered an inspiring Convocation Address.

Dr. Pavan Kumar, who holds numerous fellowships and memberships in prestigious scientific and professional organizations, shared his insights on the importance of perseverance, discipline, and ethical practice. He encouraged students to become “leaders with conscience and professionals with purpose.”

His distinguished career — adorned with awards like the Sushrutha Best Scientist Award (2017), Best Teacher Award, and APP Appreciation Award — stood as a living example of excellence and dedication.

Conferring the Degrees

With the formal permission of the President, the Convocation Ceremony proceeded to the most awaited moment — the distribution of degrees. Graduates from various departments, including ECE, CSE, EEE, Mechanical, and MBA, were called to the dais one by one as their respective Heads of Departments announced their names. The atmosphere was filled with excitement and applause as each graduate walked across the stage, received their degree, and posed for a proud moment of recognition.

The smiles, teary eyes, and joyful cheers from parents and peers made this moment truly emotional and memorable. It was not just a ceremony of certificates but a celebration of years of hard work, perseverance, and achievement.

The Convocation Oath

After the distribution of degrees, the graduates stood together to take the Convocation Oath under the guidance of Vice Principal Smt. M. Gnana Priya. The Vice Principal led the oath with solemn grace, and the graduates repeated it in unison, pledging to uphold the ethics, integrity, and responsibilities of their profession. The hall resonated with their voices, filled with pride and determination as they promised to contribute positively to society, respect their teachers, and honor their alma mater. The moment symbolized their formal transition from students to professionals, ready to serve the world with knowledge and compassion.

Hats Off to Success

The ceremony concluded with the much-awaited photo session and the jubilant “Hats Off” moment, where graduates tossed their caps into the air — a symbol of joy, freedom, and accomplishment. The event ended with a heartfelt Vote of Thanks, expressing gratitude to the Chief Guest, management, faculty, and students for making the occasion successful. Finally, everyone stood in respect for the National Anthem, marking the dignified closure of the 21st Annual Convocation.
